Day 9: Konya

Mevlana Celaleddin Rumi Tomb, Museum and Mosque, Alaaddin Hill and Park, Şemsi Tebrizi Tomb and Mosque, Karatay Madrasa. We have free time at local bazaar for shopping. Mevlana, who is known as Rumi, Muslim saint and Anatolian mystic known throughout the world for his exquisite poems and words of wisdom. His doctrine advocates unlimited tolerance, positive reasoning, goodness, charity and awareness through love. To him all religions were more or less truth. Rumi, looked with the same eye on Muslim, Jew and Christian alike. His peaceful and tolerant teachings have appealed to men of all sects and creeds. In 1958, Pope John XXIII wrote a special message saying: "In the name of the Catholic World, I bow with respect before the memory of Rumi." One of Rumi's favorite poem; "Come, come, whoever you are, wanderer, worshiper, lover of leaving, it doesn't matter. Ours is not a caravan of despair. Come, even if you have broken your vow a hundred times. Come, come again, come."
